Wisdom from Asekor's Journal, Daily Proverbs, Part Six

“A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction. My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother: For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck. My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.”

PROVERBS 1:5-10 (KJV)

Asekor's Journal of Wisdom, Part Six. Enter a sanctuary with caution and care, and avoid those who are quick to lay their hands on you because there you will find the seed of Satan.

Let your heart be filled with gladness, and your mouth filled with praises. There is a God, and He desires your attention. He will not keep you in the same place forever (with Him), give your soul to Him and open the door to your heart and divest every anger that hinders your prayers, that keeps your soul from yearning for Him.

If you desire to rest in the heart of the church do so with caution or your path may be swayed by worthless ambition and not the work of Christ.

Embrace success with open arms and shun those thoughts that bring defeat and dissension to your nerves.

Converge your mind to the place of winners and don't let your soul hinder your step to breakout into a new dawn.

Let your heart rejoice with elation when your soul finds life and don't pay heed to those voices that whisper “defeat” in your ears.

Engage on a new path and count on God to be in control; don't accede to emotional defeat. The sooner you realize your steps are ordered, you will be acclaimed as victor, not victim.

Encourage your soul to press on and avoid the shaky nerve that seems to overshadow your walk. Apply God's causes in your walk you will find the key to success.

Success knocks, yet defeat knocks harder; it becomes your call, to whom you will let in.

Nothing is impossible once your mind is in one accord with your work; engage in life with purpose and you will soon find the key to success.

Your deformity doesn't delineate your steps. Look to the heroes of old who overcame adversities and count on God to be in control and you will find that the sky is the only limit to your dreams.

Let your heart rejoice in the reward that lies ahead and the road to attain it will come at ease.

Encourage your soul to shun defeat and embrace success, because a soul lost to the wind is screaming your rescue.

Dispel the emotion that accede to a stumbling block and adhere to the voice that cheers your success; and don't relinquish prayer even when your dream is at hand, because there are a thousand foes against your success that are bound to see you fail.

Pay heed to God's Guidance and don't shun his rebuke, in it you will find wisdom and nourishment to a blissful future.
