Correction can come, once discontinuing disbelief is stopped; i.e., stop believing the lies— seek and know the T-R-U-T-H; Truth.

“Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum. Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?”

JOHN 6:53-60 (KJ)

“From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.”

JOHN 6:66 (KJ)

Suspension of Disbelief. Defined by Webster Millennium

Dictionary: a willingness to suspend one's critical faculties and believe the unbelievable; sacrifice of realism and logic for the sake of enjoyment. (Not necessarily yours.)

Two examples of suspension of disbelief. A) The first is in the above scripture and is an example of when some of Jesus' Disciples should have suspended their disbelief. This begins with "Verily, verily..." which means an "Absolute Truth" follows. The Holy Spirit showed me a mystery in this passage; I will share another time. (The Mystery of Tithes.) B) The second is when we all need to make sure we are not suspending our disbelief, but believing. A statement example of this is: "I can't believe those Fat Cats in America has ruined the world economy." Believe it! Let's correct it. That is the key. Correction comes once one stops discontinuing their disbelief; i.e., stop believing the lies-- seek and know the T-R-U-T-H; Truth. Stop suspending your disbelief; it's the second cousin to the ostrich with its head in the sand.

This is how suspension of disbelief works:

Pay attention this is deep. The statement, "The Bible says..." is in my humble opinion a tool of the antichrist to retard a person's potential to believe that Jesus speaks to other people during the course of their lifetimes and daily. The antichrist uses this statement to suspend your belief in Jesus as a living person. If you are one of those people who do not believe that Jesus speaks to people or do not believe that the Holy Spirit speaks to people, please listen, your belief has been suspended through this principal of which I am speaking. If you know someone like this, take them a copy of this devotional. Jesus speaks to people today.

Listen. If you believe in an inanimate thing and you believe long enough with enough people believing the same thing, (The Bible as the living word of God instead of Jesus being the Living Word of the Holy Father.) supporting the same idea, then a strong belief structure is created in that space, in that place—a place where one believes in a non-living thing which is given animate characteristics by “words” which move your inner belief system to ignore the inanimate qualities, treating them as animate. (suspension)

The problem is that when one can reject truth, or the Truth as in: “Jesus speaks to me.” “Well, that can’t be the truth; Jesus is dead.” “The Bible says” has got you believing that an inanimate thing speaks (suspension); not only speaks, but allows the words of all inside to have the same weight and power as those of the Father’s Beloved Christ, (an impossibility—suspension) therefore when an animate thing that is as old as the Bible and was a person and has died, you may, your brain may erroneously dismiss the person, the person of Jesus as having died and not being alive and with you. With you right now in fact. You may especially have a problem if you are waving your Bible every Sunday morning and calling it the Word (Logos) of God when Jesus is the Logos, Word of God, from God, and God. Do you worship the Bible or Jesus? Is your trust in your Bible or Jesus? Are you suspending any belief in Jesus?

Suspension of disbelief suggests that you ignore the personification of the Bible and therefore its deification, while at the same time accepting its deification which is directly in conflict with the idea of worshipping “graven images;” while embracing the “known” fact that Jesus lived and died and lives. And as such, many, as they wait for His Return, forget that He said, “He would never leave us.”

Therefore, in society, look for instances where you are asked to stop believing in what is true and begin believing in that which is not true. An excellent example in America is: Your mortgage. Your belief has been suspended. Your belief in the bank owning your mortgage and your house is suspended; suspended in your speech of it, suspended in your writing of it, and how you address it. "Oh Anthony," you may say, "I know the bank owns my house." Then, I suggest that you tell your brain and your lips that story. This means you believe you own your house when you do not own it. This means you treat your house as an asset when it is really a liability. This is an excellent example to show you how "suspension of disbelief" works. Stop living and moving in the suspension of disbelief and the suspension of belief right now by the Blood of Jesus.

Suspension of disbelief does not work for you; it does not work positively for us. We have to eliminate it anywhere it lifts its ugly head. It is not of Christ; let' root it out of our societies. Let's deal with the T-R-U-T-H.
