Tares are antichristians, the children of satan. Antichristians, the "children of the wicked one" are not Muslims, Hindus, Judaists, Buddists, but humans of any race, religion, or region which attempt to diminish our Savior and Lord Christ Jesus and destroy Father God's Creation.

"Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; the field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; the enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear."

MATTHEW 13:36-43 (KJ)

The Mystery of the Wheat and the Tares - 3. Two Beginnings. Please read Part One, 15 October 2008. It is interesting to note that before the Parable of the Wheat and Tares, came the Parable of the Sower and the Seed. Following the Wheat and Tares Parable is the Parable of the Mustard Seed. Interesting spiritually.

Part Two speaks of a number of things but paramount is the fact that God's Holy Family of Spirits, both Servants and Rebels have been around a lot longer than humans. Therefore, maybe, just maybe they can do the "worship thing" better than the most holy of humans—the Pope, let's say. The Pope, one might say is one of the holiest of humans on the planet—some may say something else—but even he, I believe cannot out perform rebellious spirits when it comes to worship—and Romans have that "worship thing" down. Let's go again to the beginning.

Thinking of our Father God as Jesus in the Beginning is backing into the theology that our Father can do anything because He is God; and therefore transformed Himself into FLESH, Jesus, and lived a Life of Perfection because simply He was God and Holy; and He did all of this for us. Well girlfriend, if He was going to do it that way—POOF—He could make all the pain, suffering, and destruction go away like "POOF." That is our JOB ladies and gentlemen—our jobs—to make the pain, suffering, destruction, death, and to increase the knowledge of Christ and His Kingdom to the world. "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen." MATTHEW 28:20 (KJ) Not TBN—but Y-O-U; yes, of course you who work at TBN, you are doing it.

Flesh by its very nature is CORRUPT. Therefore Father God, a HOLY BEING, could not inhabit corrupt flesh—if He did, the flesh would not be corrupt anymore but Holy like Him. And that would defeat His attempt to save man through Salvation in Jesus, Who was flesh, and IS Spirit. For some of you, you may receive better understanding if you think of it as Ying and Yang. Flesh is the negative part and Spirit is the positive part. Jesus being the physical, flesh bridge to the Father; while Christ being the spiritual, eternal bridge to the Father. Jesus bore (or wore) the negative part of humans (flesh) and Christ wearing the positive part of the Father which humans can withstand.

But you have to start at as close to the Beginning as possible and that is with Saint John, not at the Birth of Jesus, nor the Life of Jesus, nor the Crucifixion. When you think of the Beginning, think of John's beginning. After that comes after a great many things, one of those things is the Creation of man and his universal playground.

Saint John's Beginning has SPIRITS; Father God, Christ (Who we know as Jesus; Jesus the flesh vessel for Christ.), the Holy Spirit (Holy Ghost), Arch Angels, Angels, Sovereignities of God (Fruits of the Spirit) and many, many, uncountable numbers of our Father's Kingdom. "Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses," Hebrews 12:1a (KJ) All these Spirits were spirits with Big "S," not spirits with the little "s" like we humans have until we get the Big "S" of Christ in us like Jesus had—that part of Him that "allowed" ("Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith;" Hebrews 12:2a) Him to be Holy and that part of Him that "kept" Him Holy. Before Jesus, humankind did not have direct access to the Father.

"For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man of Christ Jesus;" 1 Timothy 2:5 (KJ) After Jesus' Crucifixion, through Christ having been in Jesus we have direct access to the Father through Jesus Who bore the Christ for us—so we can now bear the Christ to bring home the Glory of our Father into our lives and into our communities.

Now let's move on past the Two Beginnings to Ancient Times. During the time Jesus walked on the earth, who was aligned with the antichrist or the spirit of the antichrist? (To be continued.)
