

Every since Jesus left the earth visually, people have been expecting His Return to be eminent.

“Then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ Or, ‘Look, He is there!’ do not believe it. For false christs and false prophets will rise and show signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect.”

MARK 13:21-22 (NKJ)

Prophecy #1 (continued). Prepare for the Coming Age of Christ.

Please read Prophecy #1 from December 2, 2007 before continuing. Do not worry or fret because of these writings—only pray about it and PREPARE. We have to learn to use “Righteous Judgment” as we evaluate those things which we hear and see. Remember, if we are to judge angels (“Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life?” 1 Corinthians 6:3 (NKJ)), then it may not hurt us to practice using “Righteous Judgment” while we are here on earth. “Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment.” John 7:24 (NKJ)

We are not ready for His Return. Sunday, is the most spiritually divided day of the week—I am referring to Christians (with multiple denominations) and Catholics (with misdirections). Mormons are not Christians nor are Jehovah Witnesses and there are myriad “christian” cults. And Sunday is not really Sunday is it? Sunday is really Saturday. God’s true tithe is taking care of the poor and disenfranchised. We are not ready for Jesus’ Return. If Jesus comes back now, many will not be raptured.

You probably have more and better examples of why and how we are not ready as a group, as a Bride for Christ. We are not a mature bride (John 3:29), nor are we without spot or blemish (Ephesians 5:27). So why does anyone believe that the world is coming to an end—because some theologian interpreted the Word to say it is so. Saying this, “Jesus is coming back soon or today!” in light of Jesus saying: “But of that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.” Mark 13:32, is close to blasphemy, if not.

The theologians should be saying something like, “Correct the wrongs in the world as we believe that Jesus would attempt to correct since we are the Stewards of His Kingdom here; and we want this planet to be in as EXCELLENT a condition, in as perfect ORDER, and all PREPARATIONS made here now for His Coming. Otherwise we could expect Jesus to have said something like, “Listen everyone, when they write this book called the “Bible,” check the Prophecies and they will tell you when I am going to come back.” Jesus did not say this.

I know the problem with people waiting for Jesus' Return irresponsibly is that people allow social issues, political issues, and major issues of the planet to go unchecked without any real planned resolution because the "End is Near." This is poor and unacceptable behavior. Is it Christian to let the world go to hell in a hand basket? The Holy Spirit told me the problem with people focusing on Jesus' Return and not on doing His Will here NOW on earth is: "Historically, there is always a great "falling away" of the people of faith (Kingdom people) when they are disappointed when Jesus fails to return when they expect.

And that is what satan is counting on--a great "falling away" from the faith. Jesus told you He did NOT know; therefore what makes you think you ARE to know? (That is arrogant and prideful—two signs of the enemy.) THINK.

Every since Jesus left the earth visually, people have been expecting His Return to be eminent (to come anytime now). When He first left, they thought He was coming back right away with an army. When Jerusalem was under siege in 70 AD, they thought the world was coming to an end and Jesus to return to defeat the Romans (Italians). For many it did. World Wars 1 and 2, people thought the world was about to come to an end. Now in World War 3 (yes, we are in WW3—you need to recognize and stop living in DENIAL), people are thinking the world is coming to an end. Every time there is a CATASTROPHIC natural or man-made disaster, people think the world is about to come to an end. And for many in the catastrophes, death brought their natural world to an end.

What we MUST focus on is what JESUS said and what He says:

"Then Jesus came and spoke to them, saying, 'All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to OBSERVE ALL THINGS THAT I HAVE COMMANDED you; and lo, I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS, even to the end of the age.'" Matthew 28:18-20 (NKJ)

JESUS IS HERE NOW (Jesus said it, not me.)

I AM WITH YOU ALWAYS
